

The Chicago Daily Tribune.

VOLUME XXXI.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1876—TWELVE PAGES.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION.

EXPOSITION. GRAND OPENING OF THE Inter-State Exposition OF CHICAGO.

Wednesday, Sept. 6, 1876, at 6 p.m.

LIPMAN'S LOAN OFFICE,

Corner Monroe and Clark-st.

BARGAINS!

Gold Hunting Watches from $15 to $70
Gold Hunting Watches from $10 to $20
Gold Gold Horse-Timers from $10 to $20
Gold Silver American Watches from $12 to $20
Gold Silver Swiss Watches from $6 to $10
Diamond Set with Corset $25 to $50
Diamond Cluster Rings and Pins from $35 to $250
Diamond Single Rings and Pins from $15 to $50
Diamond Gold Guards and Steds 15 to 25
Gold Solid Gold, Vest, and Lozenge Chain
Solid Gold Necklaces and Neck Chains
Solid Gold and Enamelled Lockets and Crosses
Solid Gold Sets of Jewelry, set with Coral and Amethyst
Solid Gold Knobles, Earrings, Pencils and Keys
Solid Gold-Headed Canes
Solid Silver Spoons, Forks and Knives.

Pearl and Morocco Opera Glasses, Clocks, and a variety of other goods, which will be sold less than regular store prices. Every article guaranteed as represented.

Please call and examine.

AN ELEGANT ASSORTMENT OF

WATCHES, FINE GOLD JEWELRY, SILVER AND SILVER-PLATED WARE, AT ABOUT

HALF THE REGULAR PRICES

Now being closed out at the

BANKRUPT SALE,

Cor. of Lake and Clark-st.

Every article Warranted.

GENERAL ADMISSION, SEPT. 6 TO OCT. 6.

Open from 8 a.m. until 10:30 p.m.

For Adults, one admission, good for all day and evening.

For Children, one admission, good for all day and evening.

For Adults on Saturday, one admission, good for all day and evening.

For Children, one admission, good for all day and evening.

For Adults, every day after 6 p.m.

For Children, every day after 6 p.m.

For Adults, 25 cents; children, 15 cents.

The Commutation Tickets are especially adapted to excursion parties.

CLOTHING.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Open Monday, Sept. 4, 1876.

The Golden Eagle

CLOTHING STORE,
136 & 138 MADISON, and 144 CLARK-ST.

Have in store a New and Full Stock of Clothing for YOUTHS AND BOYS.

PARENTS and GUARDIANS in want will please remember the above fact.

SHIRTS.

The ORIENTAL SHIRT,

To Order and in Stock, made of N. Y. Mills or Wauwatosa Muslin. The heaviest and best Linens used in Boxes and Cuffs, and is warranted in St. make, and quality to compare with any Shirt made in the World, at the ### LOWEST PRICES!

A full line of Rich and Fine COTTON FURNISHING GOODS and UNDERWEAR, as can be found in Chicago. E. JENNINGS & CO.

Manufacturers, 111 South Clark-st.

Factory, 420 West Randolph-st.

Will pay very well for Estimates and Catalogues to THE NEWSPAPER UNION, 114 Monroe-st., Chicago.

ADVERTISING REDUCED 50 PER CENT.

THE MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL LISTS OF CO-OPERATIVE NEWSPAPERS,

Heretofore charging $1 per line, have REDUCED THEIR PRICE

TO $1 PER LINE.

THESE Lists embrace nearly 200 of the best newspapers, located as follows:

Wisconsin, - 74 Iowa, - 23

Minnesota, - 72 Michigan, &c., 22

Will pay you to advertise in these Lists at this price, even in dull times. Send for Estimates to

CRAMER, AIKENS & CRAMER,
Milwaukee, Wis.

ADVERTISING Reduced 50 PER CENT.

The Chicago Newspaper Union list of cooperative newspapers, heretofore charging $1 per line, has reduced its price to 75 cents per line, and the same is now in full force, and will be continued.

It has a circulation of over 220,000 copies weekly.

It is pay very well for Estimates and Catalogues to

THE NEWSPAPER UNION, 114 Monroe-st., Chicago.

WILL PAY VERY WELL FOR ESTIMATES AND CATALOGUES.

GENERAL AUCTION SALE

AT 10:30 THIS MORNING.

ENTIRE

NITURE

and articles of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

meeting of the Hayes and

and North Unionists, and

and North Unionists. Uniforms

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

TEETH WARD.

and members of the different

requested to meet to-morrow

at 10:30 A.M. in the

old engine-house, near

the transaction of important

the indications are that a small number of will participate in the present and address the experience meetings, and the many functions promoted.

NOT PERTURBED.
—The Times shows, from the income matter is even more minute. It is rumored that there has an explanation, an himself.

NOT WAYNE.
—Rep. Wayne, Ben Harrington, for Governor, has Bluffton to-day, and delegates are holding a meeting in the crowd.

NOT GOODING.
—S. Gooding is meeting in the room, of Chicago, in the morning.

NOT COUNCIL.
—The primaries.

not met last evening at the meeting of the Lake and Bend, Esq., presiding.

NOT PAYNE.
—Col. Payne, offered Thursday to hold the primary meeting, the choice being afterwards declared
non-existent.

NOT REYNOLDS.
—Col. Johnson was then introduced by Col.
Schulz, when he thanked the meeting for the confidence upon him. He would do his best for Hayes and Wheeler.

NOT SCHULZ.
—Col. Schulz announced that he was happy in saying all the divisions were now organized, and that Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock a meeting would be held at the Grand Pacific Hotel for the purpose of selecting a Commander-in-Chief.

NOT REYNOLDS.
—Col. Reynolds moved that the Commander be requested to appoint a Finance Committee of three from each ward, to act during the campaign. Gen. Reynolds suggested the organization of a regiment of boys, to be known as the Hayes
and Wheeler Cadets.

NOT SCHULZ.
—Col. Schulz announced that Carl Schulz would speak in this city Thursday evening, and that it was intended to have a grand public demonstration.

NOT REYNOLDS.
—Col. Schulz moved that the command recognize the Hayes and Wheeler Cadets. Carried.

NOT THE COMMANDER.
—The Commander then announced that the Young Men's Republican League of West Chicago would be organized in Gobrecht Hall, Denston Street, Wednesday evening.

NOT THE COMMANDER.
—The Commander instructed the company officials to make preparations for the grand parade Thursday evening, and to transact some further business during the meeting adjourned.

FOURTEENTH WARD.

NOT THE FOURTEENTH WARD.</

The Tribune.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

PAYABLE IN ADVANCE—POSTAGE PREPAID AT
THIS OFFICE	$12.00
Daily Edition, portrait, 1 year.....	1.00
Parts of a year, per month.....	1.00
Sunday Edition, Literary and Religious Double Sheet.....	3.00
Parts of a year, per month.....	3.00
One copy, per year.....	6.00
Club of five.....	6.00
EDITION POSTPAID.....	20.00

Postage prepaid.

Specimen copies sent free.

To prevent delay and mistakes, be sure and give Post-office address, including State and County.

Remittances may be made either by draft, express, Post-Office order, or registered letter, at our risk.

TERMS TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

Daily, delivered, $12.00 per year.

Daily, delivered, Sunday included, 25 cents per week.

Address THE TRIBUNE COMPANY.

Corner Madison and Dearborn-sts., Chicago, Ill.

TILDEN'S RECORD.

A GREAT CAMPAIGN DOCUMENT.

The record conclusively proves that he was.

1. A SECESSIONIST, AND OPPOSED TO THE WAR WITH THE UNION, AND TO THE UNION.

2. A FRIEND OF "BOSS" TWEED, AND A MEMBER OF THE TAMmany GANG.

3. A BOGUS REFORMER WHO REDUCED NO TAXES, AND WHO WAS AN ADAMANT, AND HAD NOTHING BETTER THAN HE FOUND IT.

4. A CORRUPTER OF THE BALLOON BOYS, AND A LEADER IN FRAUDULENT ELECTIONS AS CHARGED UPON HIM BY THE UNION.

5. AN ISSUE OF SHAMPLASTERS TO LABORING MEN IN THE IRON REGIONS OF MICHIGAN.

6. A MONSTROUS RAILROAD SHARK, WHO AMBUSHED THE UNION, AND DESTROYED WESTERN RAILROADS IN FINANCIAL TROUBLE.

This great campaign document fills four pages of TANZU size. A copy thereof should be placed in the hands of every voter in the West.

"Tilden's Record" should order

"Tilden's Record" for distribution.

COST OF THE RECORD.

It will be sent by mail or express, with charges paid.

For the following terms:

Per 100 copies.....

For a dozen copies.....

By the 1,000 copies, special rates will be charged.

Send orders immediately for "Tilden's Record."

TRIBUNE CO., Chicago.

AMUSEMENTS.

Wond's Museum—

Monroe street, between Dearborn and State. "The Wond's. Afternoon and evening.

McVicker's Theatre—

Madison street, between Dearborn and State. "The McVicker's. Afternoon and evening.

Haverly's Theatre—

Randolph street, between Lake and Randolph. Hooley's

California Minstrels. Afternoon and evening.

New Chinese Theatre—

Clark street, between Lake and Randolph. Hooley's

Minstrels. Afternoon and evening.

Adelphi Theatre—

Monroe street, corner Dearborn. Variety performance. Afternoon and evening.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1876.

Greenbacks at the New York Gold Exchange yesterday closed at 90¢.

During the month of August $3,111,936 of the public debt of the United States was wiped out.

The 9th of September is set as the day

when ABUD HAMID I, the new Sultan of Turkey, is to be girded with the sword of

SULTAN.

What will he do with it?

According to the recent census taken at the Red Cloud Agency, it appears that there are but 5,000 Indians, all told, at that point;

the number of grown males being 1,000.

This census will be used as a basis in the issues of rations in the future, and the many bucks now had rather fight than eat will very likely go with empty stomachs when the winter season approaches.

A case of yellow fever in Brooklyn has created some consternation among a nervous

class of people who forgot that isolated instances of the sort in Northern ports are by no means uncommon at this season of the year. At Savannah, Ga., there is more cause for alarm. There the weather is very hot, and there have been twenty-four yell-

low interments during the past three days.

Ex-Gov. PALMER has been caught tripping in an assertion that there are no soldiers on the Republican State ticket. He has said this in several speeches of late, unmindful of the well-known fact that EDWARD RUTZ, the Republican candidate for State Treasurer, wore the blue as a private soldier in a large number of int'res, where he was a leader of the bullets of soldier who are now training with ex-Gov. PALMER.

At last accounts poor Mr. SEXTON was in a state of siege, his citadel at Utica being besieged by a horde of Democratic politicians

who were determined to reduce the disgrun-tated invalid to the point of reconsidering his presumptive refusal to come forth from his retirement and take up arms with the old mob once more.

He had refused persistently,

petulantly, piteously, and with more firmness than he ever showed before under like circumstances, but his tormentors are still hopeful that their candidate he will concede to be.

Encouraging reports are received of the amicable adjustment of threatened difficulties

between the coal-miners and their employers.

In the anthracite region of Pennsylvania, according to information received yesterday by the President of the Delaware, Lackawanna &amp; Western Railroad, the miners have heretofore been confined to his contradiction of himself under oath, set forth in the following extract:

On Dec. 26, 1863. In All answer to thecomplaint in the Circuit Court of the State, of theState, of the 2d of thesame year, he said, "FriendBAUER, OAKLEY, andFAZIO, and suchpersons, assuch, assuch,

FOREIGN.

The Servians Much Encouraged by Russia's Policy.

Little Progress Made by the Powers in the Direction of Peace.

The Servian War Party Seek to Obstruct Negotiations.

Russia Will Insist upon Full Protection to the Christian Population.

A Noble Italian Forger Sentenced to Eight Years' Penal Servitude.

The New Americaf Loan Eagerly Sought in London.

THE WAR.

ARMED SQUADRON.

Constantinople, Sept. 1.—The deposition of Mihailo occasioned no excitement or disturbance. The deposed monarch has been assigned the Tophane palace as his residence. Abdul Hamid, the new Sultan, was yesterday received by the Ministers and functionaries at the Tophane palace, where he was proclaimed Abdul Hamid.

SERVIA GAINING CONFIDENCE.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—A correspondent writing from Belgrade says: "The Servian army is being rapidly reinforced and reorganized by Russians, who are crossing Roumania and Hungary in large numbers, and that since this, the Servians have fought better and seem more likely to hold their ground against the Turks. The extent of advantages gained is only to be judged by the reflex action upon the political situation at Belgrade. A week ago, Prince Milon sent a mediation of the Powers to the most formal manner for Servia and Manegazza jointly. This step was taken in opposition to Gen. Tchernayeff's wishes and in the face of his protests and arguments. It has been daily becoming more and more apparent that the Prince's action is regretted, at least by those in the control of the Servian Government, and notwithstanding the Powers have notified Prince Milon of their acceptance of the task of bringing about peace negotiations, there is evidence that Servia will obstruct or evade them. It is possible, unless some new military disaster produces another revolution of feeling, Tchernayeff's memorandum against peace was yesterday officially published by the Servian Government. It follows, without any light on the situation, that most striking features are the official presentation of the case that Servia has nothing to lose by the war, since the European Powers will never allow the Porte to deprive her of her present political administrative rights, and the expression of a belief that Russia will soon be forced to enter the contest if it is prolonged.

It is said that the pacific tendencies of Prince Milon are being overcome by the representations of the war party. It is reported that Prince Gotschakoff has formally demanded that any mediation undertaken shall extend to Bosnia and Herzegovina.

RUSSIA POURING INTO SERVIA.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—A special from Pesth to the New York Tribune says: "The passage of Russian officers through Hungary is becoming a source of irritation; as several parties have been arrested and imprisoned. To-day we have an account of a party of sixty-eight, provided with passports, and traveling under protection of the Geneva Cross, being detained by order of Hungarian Home Ministry, but Baron Hofman, acting for Count Tisza, during his absence, has stated that they have been released, and that similar travelers from Russia have been permitted to pass unmolested. In the meantime, the peace negotiations, which have been continued at the Ambassador's at Constantinople, seem not to be making satisfactory progress."

THE NECESSITY.

Another special states that "at the court of the Turkish Cabinet, Wednesday, it was determined to postpone any decision regarding the wishes of the Powers concerning the terms of peace without further consultation. This indicates that the Powers' demands have not arrived at any agreement regarding a basis of negotiations, and tends to confirm the statement that Russia adheres to the policy of the Berlin memorandum. But the settlement upon the basis of the Berlin memorandum, if this demand meets with considerable support from the other powers, negotiations will be continued directly with the government of England, a formal rejection of the Berlin proposals. The feeling that the present situation is dangerously uncertain begins to be reflected by the prices of international stock upon the London and Continental Exchanges."

FROM RUSSIAN SOURCES.

Mr. Ferenczy, Sept. 1.—It is stated that the Russian Government has united with the Powers in their efforts for pacification, and that the Russian representative in Constantinople has declared that should an armistice be concluded Montenegro would be compelled to stop hostilities, fully participating in the subsequent peace. Russia, without assuming a prominent part in the steps taken to stop hostilities, has constantly in view the necessity of obtaining guarantees for securing peaceful intervention between the Christians and Moslems. The Russian policy remains the same as at the Berlin conference, and there is no reason to suppose other views will prevail at Vienna or Berlin.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 1.—The city was illuminated last night in honor of the new Sultan. The ships in the harbor were decorated with flags. The ceremony of girding Abdul Hamid with the sword of Osman is announced for the 9th inst.

PRINCE MILAN.

BERLIN, Sept. 1.—Today stated that Servia had received a communication from Turkey regarding the desire expressed by her to enter into negotiations for peace. It was in response to England that Prince Milon said he was willing to accept such negotiations. Servia will not be able to accept rigorous conditions. The change of Sovereigns might retard negotiations and alter the conditions of peace and the situation of the belligerents.

LAST.

Constantinople, Sept. 1.—All the Ministers will be in office to-morrow.

A conference of representatives of the guaranteeing Powers was held yesterday, and the question of mediation discussed. All had received identical instructions from their respective governments. By Saturday or Monday they will take official steps to bring about an armistice.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 1.—The subscription to the new Servian loan opened Aug. 31. The same is eagerly taken in this country.

ITALY.

CHARGE WITH FORGERY.

BOLOGNA, Sept. 1.—Giacoppe Manegazza, the Ninth Marquis of Lise, has been on trial before the Assize Court here, charged with forgery, fraud, and falsification, in forging the names of King Victor Emmanuel, Prince Humbert of Savoy, and the British Consul at Florence, to a number of bills of exchange. He has been convicted and sentenced to eight years' penal servitude.

THE TRIAL.

Disputes at London Times.

BOLZANO, Aug. 30.—This morning Giuseppe Manegazza, the Ninth Marquis of Lise, who traces his descent from Bocchino Manegazza, Lord of Sassi Mandello, who, in the year 922, was made Lord of Manegazza by the Emperor Gisalberto, was placed in the dock to stand his trial before the Assize of Bologna for forgery, fraud, and falsification. He is accused of having forged the name of His Majesty King Victor Emmanuel, his Highness Prince Humbert of Savoy, her British Consul at Florence, and others to a number of bills of exchange, and documents drawn up for the purpose of marriage; of having, by means of these bills and documents defrauded various persons in a total sum of more than 500,000 francs; and of having counterfeited the official stamp of the British Consulate at Florence. The forgeries and frauds were discovered in Bologna, and have been beyond what amounted to little more than a bare announcement of the fact, the press both Italian and foreign has thought it fitting to remain quiet on the subject, as in the case of ordinary crime. The Marquis might be guilty of having forged the bills in question, but it has been stated that the signatures were not his. But the bidders and others defrauded declared that so far from having been taken in by skillful imitations, they were just as in distinguishing the bills offered them, insinuating that they were known to him in the financial world and recognized as one of His Majesty's private agents. At the same time, also, the names of persons occupying distinguished positions in business and interested, if not implicated, in the matter with what amount of truth or falsity remains to be seen.

In these circumstances the case was felt to be one of such delicacy as to demand absolute reserve until the facts should be elicited at the public trial which commenced to-day. The bills forged by the Marquis were produced at the proper time in the act of accusation to be held at the trial, and the following bills, produced at the proper time, are divided into three classes. First, the following bills discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, and before he was released, for 27,500, and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Messrs. Magnay, Parker & Co. of Florence; one by the Banca Emilia of Bologna; two bills signed with the name of Prince Humbert, for 27,500; and the other for 27,500, discounted and still running, when Manegazza was arrested, for 50,000, each signed with the King's name and discounted; one by a Signor Galliotti of Milan; one by Mess

THE CITY.

GENERAL NEWS.

The street-cars on the Blue Island avenue line will begin to-morrow evening to run to Twenty-second street, the track being now in condition to that point.

The temperature yesterday, as observed by Manasse, optician, 88 Madison street (TRIBUNE Building), was at 8 a. m., 72 degrees; 10 a. m., 72; 12 m., 73; 3 p. m., 73; 8 p. m., 68. Barometer, 8 a. m., 29.90; 8 p. m., 29.90.

The Courier de l'Ilinois has come out for Hayes and Wheeler. It is the only French paper in the West. It is finely gotten up, and is filled with the choicest articles, political and otherwise. Mr. G. Deumas is the editor, and A. Grandjean proprietor.

A special train of express-cars and two end-of-the-hands has a party of 1,000 excursionists, passed through Chicago yesterday morning. They came by the Rock Island Road and left by the Baltimore and Ohio, and probably the largest excursion ever passed through Chicago. The party will visit Newark, Zanesville, Wheeling, Cambridge, and other points, and return in a week or ten days. Another party of about 200 passed through the city yesterday.

Richard Hill, a switchman in the employ of the Illinois Central Railroad, found the body of a woman floating in the lake at the foot of Harrison street at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. In the pocket of the deceased were some photo-graphs and a letter of recommendation from Mrs. E. Storrs of No. 6 Langley avenue to Mathilde Mullen. Such proved to be the deceased's name, as the corpse was identified by his residence in the North Dearborn street. As there are no marks of violence about the body, death must have ensued from other causes than violent causes. The coroner will conclude the inquest to-morrow.

A new candidate for favor in the field of class journalism has just made its appearance—the Factory and Farm, a monthly publication of 32 pages, including the cover. It is issued by the Factory and Farm Publishing Company, of Chicago, and is a valuable and valued medium of communication between the farmer and the manufacturer.

The first number, dated October, 1876, is an elegant specimen of the paper, and the character of its contents plainly indicate the capacity of the conductors for furnishing their patrons with an attractive monthly. Its advertising gives a substantial evidence of its success.

The two yachts have been partially settled by the purchase of the two foreign yachts lately arrived here. The sale of the Manie to Al Munger was closed yesterday, the price being $1,700. The last to come to port, the boat of The Manie operators for $1,900, and among her new owners are Messrs. N. R. Fairbank, J. K. Fisher, Robert Bruce, B. M. Arms, and others. The Manie will be rechristened by Capt. Al Munger, who has commanded the winning boat in the last two races on Geneva Lake, and who is one of the most skillful officers on the lake. It is expected that several races will be sailed between the Ima and Frolic before the season is over.

The buildings on Wabash avenue and Washington street, soon to be occupied by a branch of A. T. Stewart & Co.'s establishment, are being rapidly cleaned and put in ready repair. Mr. A. T. Stewart has concluded the sale so far in behalf of the firm, in the city, as is also Mr. Libby, the principal manager of the house. Mr. Smith stated to a TRIBUNE reporter yesterday that he expected to receive $10,000 for the stock of goods in the new store on the 15th inst. The three buildings which have been secured, as previously announced, will be taken by Mr. W. H. Rothbaum & Co. The Wilder and part of the Rothbaum Blocks are ready for occupancy, and the Drake Block will be put in their possession Jan. 1. Mr. Smith will bring his stock and organize a new circus, and a small army will be required to attend to the various departments. He leaves for New York Saturday, and will return next week for a permanent stay in this city.

WANT TO GET OUT. The exiles over the Rhine contemplate with feelings of intense satisfaction a possible shortening in their term of sentence. The United States Commissioner, March 1, will provide that all prisoners convicted of an offense against the laws of the United States, and confined in the execution of the sentence upon him in any State or Territory which has no system of commutation for its own prisoners shall be entitled to a reduction of five days per month as a favor for good behavior. The same will be applied to those on the 1st, which is one week from the date of the State law, and applicable in case a master is a party to the trial. In this case a master is a party to the trial.

SWING'S CHURCH. Prof. Swing has returned from his summer vacation to the city, which is Chicago—and will to-morrow resume the services of the Central Church at McVicker's Theatre. His many friends will be pleased to learn that he has been greatly helped by his vacation, and is now turned prepared to enter upon his winter's work with fresh vigor. Without doubt McVicker's Theatre will be crowded to overflowing as of old with the audience, who, it is understood, are to leave the city for the winter.

DR. BARTLETT. Dr. Bartlett, who is only second in influence in the city, and this fact may prove injurious to the reverend gentleman to accomplish his ends. He is understood, are to leave the city for the winter.

THE WOMAN'S UNION. The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Temperance Union was held yesterday morning in the little room in Farwell Block, which is adorned with broken pipes and ghosts of tobacco-cards hung on the wall underneath the text: "Let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit."

After the usual preliminary exercises, conducted by the President, Miss Frances A. Wilcox, the meeting was opened with a Scripture reading from the New Testament, and then turned to the study of the "Ring" of the "Ring" thieves.

The Company had no difficulty in finding new and competent men, and all the trains left and arrived as usual. The Omaha train was detained for a short time, but this was not in behalf of the firm, as it had been so far in behalf of the firm, in the city, as is also Mr. Libby, the principal manager of the house. Mr. Smith stated to a TRIBUNE reporter yesterday that he expected to receive $10,000 for the stock of goods in the new store on the 15th inst. The three buildings which have been secured, as previously announced, will be taken by Mr. W. H. Rothbaum & Co. The Wilder and part of the Rothbaum Blocks are ready for occupancy, and the Drake Block will be put in their possession Jan. 1. Mr. Smith will bring his stock and organize a new circus, and a small army will be required to attend to the various departments. He leaves for New York Saturday, and will return next week for a permanent stay in this city.

COME TO GRIEF. Mr. BURNS ON THE ANXIOUS SEAT. Another disseminator of religious literature has come to grief. His name is Jonas J. Burns, and he maintains a sort of dual existence at 180 Wabash, where he has a job-printing office, and at 17 Wabash, where he is engaged in rent lodgings. The latter are occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations and photographs, and that it had not kept it. Some of the women who have it are reported to have taken an advertisement in the paper, and the latter is occupied mostly by females who are supposed to have lost even the last shreds of once respectable characters. Jonas publishes an eight-page sheet known as the Chicago Fan. Its mission, as is declared on the editorial page, is "the prevention of the blues and dry times." The way it proposes to accomplish this desirable object is seen in its make-up. In the first place, it is devoted to the advertisements of a book with the following title: "Widow's Trap and Maidens' Trick," a story of a series of actual facts, how the naughtiest maidens and the actual naughtiest girls play their little games in the City of New York. The title-page further states that the book is embellished with several illustrations

TEMPERANCE.

What King Solomon Knew About Intoxicating Beverages.

Why He Advised His People to Shut the Wine That Is Red.

Because It Bitteth Like a Serpent and Stingeth Like an Adder.

The Sabbath-School Lesson for To-Morrow.

The negro proceeded with some words, ran out and, baring the African fine specimen of declaiming, had not enjoy it, and yet that he was restrained into the cabin. Jim, the negro, made a fierce attack and Gen. Booms.

At this juncture I interposed, "I have treated me in this affair; but I cannot stand my own race and party make a speech."

heard that speech before, "I consider it a great speech; but I'd of him, and the heat; but I'd of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

ing had said, "I consider

it a great speech; but I'd

of him, and the heat; but I'd

of applause in the cabin; took the floor.

on the burning deck," began the general titter ran and the Judge and the General.

As soon as the reader

of the reader of the meet-

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Continued Dullness in Chicago Banking Circles.

Chop Canal Tolls and the Trade of New York.

The Produce Markets Steadier, and Fairly Active—Provisions Stronger.

Wheat Turns Downward—Corn Firm—The Value of Old Wheat.

FINANCIAL.

For the first of the month, yesterday was intermediately dull. Some of the bankers reported that the most so of any month for a year. Usually considerable other loans are required to make settlements; but in this case they were few and trifling and ridiculously small in amount. Presidents and Cashiers were found taking their ease and apparently disappointed at receiving so few calls from customers. Of course they are abundantly prepared for a turnover when they take the day off, and the more lively they are the more welcome will they be. The clearings footed up only $4,000,000—a fact which sufficiently corroborates all that is above stated.

It remains simply to repeat former quotations, viz.: for discounts to customers, $620 per cent. This is the rate at the mercantile, and such discounts are comparatively limited. The only ones reported were at 50c per $1,000 discount. Market comparatively dull in this, as in all other lines of business and finance.

CHEAP CANAL-TOLLS AND THE TRADE OF NEW YORK.

The New York journals have at length been made to realize the necessity of cheap canal-tolls to the trade and prosperity of their city. The following article, from the Journal of Commerce of the 26th, is so directly in accordance with what The Tribune has for years past been trying to make the people of New York understand, that it is intended to copy the same in full. What the Journal says is this:—

"The Journal of Commerce says that it is better that the canal should be made free than that New York should lose the vast trade of the West. There is some hope that New York begins to understand her true interest; she must choose between cheap tolls or the loss of the vast trade of the West. From this there is no escape. The Journal says:

"Those interested parties, the railroad companies and many persons who hold to the houses and erroneous views of the canal, will be the last to admit the special argument in favor of high tolls out of the recent decline in the earnings of the Erie Canal. But the Journal says that the time has come when the earnings of the canal—especially for the last months of the year—will be less than the cost of carrying, by concealing all that might be said on the other side, that the canal is not the most profitable part of the business, but that it is the only part of the business which is not the most profitable. The only remedy is to put up the tolls at once. These next Legislature—the object of which was to keep up the canal—will be the last to be put up."

Frankfort, Sept. 1.—United States bonds, new 5s, 103.

Governments were dull and steady. Railroad bonds were quiet this afternoon. Prices were well sustained. Union Pacific Sinking Funds advanced to 102 1/2, ex interest. C. & O. and C. & N. F. Funds brought 92 1/4-93 1/4. Union Pacific first sold at 100 1/2, Cleveland & Toledo new at 105, and Delaware & Hudson new at 102 1/2. Kansas and Texas Sinking Funds rose to 57 1/2.

State bonds quiet and nominal.

The market remained open this afternoon, 140 1/2 higher than at the close yesterday for Western Union, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, Milwaukee, and Paul, and 140 1/2 to 141 1/2 for New Jersey Central, Pacific Mail, Ohio & Mississippi, Erie, and New York.

Wheat—No changes.

Flour—No changes.

Barley—No changes.

Common—No changes.